

JAN HUNT

Jan has spent the last 55 years in showbusiness doing everything she loves from cabaret, radio television, films, pantomimes, plays, farce, music hall and musicals. Although she has had a hugely successful and varied career she is still probably best known as the blonde, blue eyed 'Crackerjack girl' in the popular, long running children's BBC TV series Crackerjack.

Her many theatre appearances include leading roles in forty pantomimes in London and across the UK, Come Spy With Me, Show Boat, Run For Your Wife, The Life Story of Marie Lloyd, Lovely Lady, The Amazing Truth of Felicity Quick and The Mousetrap all in London's West End. Regional & No. 1 touring appearances include Touch and Go, Cluedo, Something's Afoot, Once More Darling, The Real Monty, Paddington Bear, The Good Old Days, The Magnificent Music Hall, Fish Out Of Water, A Bedfull of Foreigners, 'Allo 'Allo, Cowardy Custard, There's No Place Like A Home and most recently Me and My Girl.

TV appearances include T Bag Strikes Again, Fresh Fields, All Star Record Breakers, Give Us A Clue, The Morecambe and Wise Show, Generation Game, Basil Brush, The Ken Dodd Christmas Special, Let's Make A Musical, You, Me and It, The Alistair Cook Hour, The Good Old Days, two BBC TV pantomimes, Aladdin and Robinson Crusoe and It Was Alright In The 70's.

It was Jan's long and proud association with London's famous Players Theatre Music Hall which led her to the many TV appearances on BBC TV's longest running series The Good Old Days and to earning great acclaim when she appeared as the legendary 'Queen of 'alls' Marie Lloyd in The Life Story of Marie Lloyd. In 1989 Jan's love for Music Hall resulted in her establishing her own Music Hall Company, The Paper Moon Theatre Company. Her production, The Magnificent Music Hall has toured with great success throughout the USA, Canada, Europe and in the UK with highlighted performances at The London Palladium, The London Coliseum, The Criterion, Wilton's Music Hall and London's famous 'Ally Pally'.

As a theatre producer with Classic Comedy Productions Jan has co-produced Victoria Wood's Dinnerladies, Roy Clarke's Keeping Up Appearances, Birds of a Feather (with the original TV cast) and Rising Damp and there are plans to bring further TV sitcoms to the stage.
